

SHOWS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

All my shows are listed on my calendar. Most of them are in schools, senior centers and care centers. I can usually let you attend these if you call in advance. I also do some shows that are open to the public. Here is a list of those.

Dec. 11, 2021 Holiday Troubadour. I will play Christmas, Hanukah & Kwanza music on banjo, guitar, cuatro, talking drum & bagpipes. There will also be tap dances & stories appropriate to the season. It will be at the Poppenhusen Institute at 11404 14th Rd. College Point, NY. Phone 718 358 0067.

Oct. 6, 2021 Latin Music, Storytelling & Dance 3:30- 4:30 pm. Kenilworth Public Library. The show includes music on Spanish guitar, Puerto Rican cuatro, cittern-guitar and panpipes. I'll be dancing flamenco, a Mexican hat dance and a Mexican rope dance. 548 Boulevard, Kenilworth, NJ. Tel: 908 276 2451.

Mar. 1, 2020 Irish Balladeer Show from 2-3:30 pm. Van Vleck House & Gardens 21 Van Vleck St. Montclair, NJ. 973 744 4752. The show combines Irish storytelling, singing & step dancing accompanied by banjo, guitar, mandolin, concertina & bagpipes.

June 17-30, 2019- The Irish and How They Got That Way. Mountainside Playhouse in Jennerstown, Pa. The story of the Irish in America. I worked as an actor, musician, singer, tap dancer and choreographer.

Nov. 1-18, 2018 Mother Courage. Nebraska Repertory Theater. This production is set in the Civil War and has a new script and original music. I worked as an actor, musician, singer and dancer. I also choreographed one of the dances.
